Mr.N.J.Patil for petitioner

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 31st January 2006.

P.C.

. Heard Mr.Patil for petitioner.

2. After perusing the petition and annexures thereto, including the order it is not necessary to interfere at this stage with the order passed by the trial court forwarding certain documents for the opinion of hand writing expert. Trial court has expressly kept open the issue of their admissibility. Needless to observe that in case petitioner is aggrieved by the final order, it will be open for him to raise all contentions as are raised in the petition. Granting such liberty and keeping all contentions in that behalf open, petition is dismissed.
